HACKGRID
2019

SPONSORSHIP BROCHURE 2019
VELLORE INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY, VELLORE

APPLE DEVELOPERS GROUP

ABOUT US

Apple Developers Group is a part of a global initiative by Apple known as the Apple University Program. We have access to all the tools which iOS developers use.

ADG VIT has conducted many successful events and workshops, introducing many students to the world of application and web development.

WHAT IS HACKGRID ?

HackGrid is one of Apple Developers Group's newer ventures. A grand hackathon. It's for the dreamers and the thinkers, here at VIT.

At Hackgrid 2019, we'll bring together over 500 students from all other top schools across the country to Vellore, TN.

In 48 hours, these students will experiment with and create a variety of technical projects using your technologies and APIs. To make it happen, we need some awesome sponsors, and we would love for you to be one of them!

WHY SPONSOR US

Showcase your company and brand
- Boost your company's brand and show off your company's technical side through our sponsorship fair, workshops, and demos.

Meet talented students
- Connect with amazing computer science, design, and engineering students from India.
- Get access to 500+ applicant resumes, portfolios, websites, and Github profiles!

Support education in science and design
- Bring new ideas, technologies, and mentorship to first-time hackers.

Diversity and inclusion
- Help promote diversity and inclusion in computer science, engineering, and design at top universities.
- Support underrepresented minorities and women in these fields!
